A MAN has admitted carrying out an attack in Haverhill in which another man was wounded with a knife.

Liam Allen, 18, of Mays Avenue, Balsham, appeared on Monday at Ipswich Crown Court.

He had been due to stand trial after pleading not guilty to offences of unlawful wounding and possession of cannabis.

Before a jury had been sworn in, Allen changed his pleas to guilty and was told by Mr Recorder John Foy QC that he would be sentenced for both offences on September 4.

Allen was arrested following an incident in the Leiston Way and Greenfields area of Haverhill on the evening of March 14 after an 18-year-old man suffering from what appeared to be a knife wound was found by police nearby.

A search the following day revealed that Allen was in possession of a quantity of cannabis, the court heard.

Mr Recorder Foy told Allen that he would continue to be remanded in custody until his sentencing which will take place at Norwich Crown Court.

Residents' anger over 'third-world' estate roads

FIX IT: Elmdon Place, one of the run-down roads on the Chalkstone Estate

ONLINE

What do you think?
Have your say on our website

cambridge-news.co.uk/haverhill

RESIDENTS are calling for action over the "third-world" state of the roads on Haverhill's Chalkstone estate.

Ernie Goody, secretary of the Chalkstone Tenants and Residents' Association (CATRA), said: "It's absolutely abysmal."

"It's not just the roads. Most of the footpaths are like that. They are overgrown and they've got two or three-foot high flowers."

He said he had reported the state of the roads to Suffolk County Council, which is responsible for highways, earlier this year.

Mr Goody continued: "I think what's happened is they haven't really spent a lot of money over the 50 years that the estate has been going and now it's showing."

He said that some footpaths had had their flagstones replaced with tarmac recently, but even these

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN were already showing signs of wear.

He hopes to bring up the state of the roads and footpaths at the next CATRA meeting on September 2.

Jan Lupton, a West Wickham resident who regularly visits friends who live on the estate, said a particular problem was with side roads such as Elmdon Place.

She went on: "Up at the Chalkstone all of the roads going off the main road have just been left. They are all pretty much the same - I don't think they have been touched. You've got these awful, unacceptable, third-world roads."

"It has been like that for as long as I've been going up there, which is about six years. So many levels of the road have worn away. I would like to see it brought up to the standard of the rest of the roads in Haverhill."

A spokesman for Suffolk County Council said: "We accept the surface of Elmdon Place is not particularly attractive but it currently has no defects which meet our intervention criteria."

"All roads are inspected at least twice a year and we will continue to maintain this road in a safe and serviceable condition."

"We have resurfaced some of the footways in the Chalkstone Estate area in the last few months and are well aware of their general condition."

"We will consider the footways here for inclusion in our footway resurfacing programme next year, but they will have to be judged against the condition of other footways in Suffolk and a constrained budget position."

Event to help understand dementia

IF you're looking to understand more about dementia, a care home is here to help.

Cleves Place care home in Millfields Way is hosting an "Understanding Dementia" event on Tuesday.

The session, from noon to 3pm, will be run by expert Rachel Niblock from Dementia Adventure.

She will discuss what dementia is and how it affects the brain, as well as providing practical tips about overcoming communication barriers and caring for a loved one with dementia.

Sharlene Van Tonder, home manager at Cleves Place care home, said: "It is really important for family carers to be equipped with plenty of support when caring for loved ones living with dementia. By hosting a free event on the subject, we can provide people in Haverhill with expert advice and give them a chance to find out more about dementia services in the area."

While at Cleves Place, you can pick up copies of free guides to dementia care published by Care UK. These include include 'Listen, talk, connect' and the new 'Good to Go' guide which launched in May 2015.

The event is free to attend. To book a place call 0333 321 1985 or email julie.dennis@careuk.com.

The incident is believed to have occurred on Tuesday, June 30 at approximately 12.40pm in a shop on the High Street.

The victim noticed that his wallet was missing from his pocket while in the shop and contacted police.

New information has come to light that an attempt was made to use the victim's stolen cards in a pharmacy in Haverhill on the same day, and police are issuing a CCTV image of a man who may be able to assist with enquiries.

Anyone who has any information regarding the individual pictured should contact Suffolk Police on 101 quoting crime reference number HH/15/1607.

Walk to remember war dead

MORE than 50 people joined a walk around Haverhill cemetery on Sunday to remember local men who died in the Far East.

The event was held by the Haverhill Family History and the local branch of the Royal British Legion group to mark the 70th anniversary of VJ day, marking the end of the Second World War in Japan.

The stories of 12 Haverhill casualties – three who died fighting in the Far East, and nine who died as prisoners of war – were told.

The walkers visited the gravestones where six of these men are remembered alongside their parents.

An exhibition of VJ day memorabilia is currently on at the Arts Centre.

Three men are arrested over air rifle

THREE men have been arrested after armed police searched a property in Haverhill on Friday night.

Police received a call from a member of the public at 11.20pm on Friday, August 14. The caller reported seeing a person with a firearm on the Clements Estate in the town.

Firearms police attended and searched a property on the estate that night, and recovered an air rifle.

Police probing GP allegation

POLICE are investigating after an allegation was made against a GP in the Haverhill area.

A spokesman for Suffolk Police said: "Police were contacted on Friday evening, August 14, following an allegation from a member of the public.

"Officers are working alongside the General Medical Council to look into this allegation and enquiries are under way."

Nobody has so far been arrested in connection with the police investigation.

The GP has been suspended by NHS England.

Christine Macleod, medical director for NHS England (East), said: "A GP from the local area has been suspended pending further investigations.

"NHS England takes all incidents like this extremely seriously and is committed to providing safe effective primary care for patients.

"While proceedings are ongoing it would be inappropriate to comment further."

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Suspension by NHS England prevents the doctor in question from practising at an NHS surgery.

He or she can still practise privately unless the GMC revoke his or her license to practise.

The GMC was not able to confirm whether it was investigating.

It launches investigations only into cases which are serious enough that they could affect a doctor's right to practise.

As part of its investigations it speaks with the doctor, the complainant and the doctor's employer.

An investigation could also involve considering documentary evidence, witness statements, expert reports and assessments of the doctor's performance and health.

Investigations can conclude without further action, with a warning or with undertakings with the doctor.

If the complaint is serious, the GMC can also refer the case to the Medical Practitioners Tribunal Service for a fitness to practise panel hearing.

The chief operating officer of the local clinical commissioning group said: "We will be supporting our member practice... during this time. As an investigation is under way it would not be appropriate to comment any further."

A senior partner at the suspended doctor's practice said: "During this investigation our ongoing priority is to continue to deliver good patient care.

"It is business as usual for the practice staff and our patients."

The practice will continue providing services as usual, so there is no need for patients who have appointments in the Haverhill area to take any special action.

A-LEVELS

ON THE BALL: Kyle Easton-Mulcare at Samuel Ward Academy

MAKING THE GRADE: Back from left, Will Finch, Connor Goodings and Jacob Simmons with Hayley Waller at Samuel Ward

It's A-OK for students

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

STUDENTS in Haverhill were celebrating as this year's A-level results were announced.

At Castle Manor Academy, students achieved the equivalent of three C grades at A-level on average across all courses.

Head of school Vanessa Whitcombe said: "We are all extremely proud of our students and their achievements, both academically and in the various ways in which they support our community."

"Our staff and parents have worked tirelessly with students to ensure they have the drive to get the best possible results and I would like to thank them for their continuous hard work. We would like to wish students heading to university, further study or in to work the very best and look forward to seeing them again soon."

Castle Manor student Abi Brown achieved an A* grade in A-level religious studies and B grades in history and psychology. In September she will be heading to the University of East Anglia to study philosophy and history. Afterwards she hopes to become a teacher, inspired by the teaching she has received at Castle Manor.

Abi said: "I'm so excited. It's going to be good just to have a new adventure."

"All of my teachers have been absolutely great. They worked so hard for us."

Another aspiring teacher, Jack Sainty, has received the Distinction* grades in BTEC sport, and will be heading to Bedford University to study sport and PE.

Jack said: "I've wanted to teach PE ever since I was in middle school. I've done quite a lot of coaching – over 300 hours of volunteering." He has received the highest V-award for his volunteering efforts.

TEARS OF JOY: Emily Wickington achieved an A and two Bs at Samuel Ward

At Samuel Ward Academy, every single student passed at A*-E.

Joe Baker achieved an A* in English literature, a C in sociology and a B in geography. He said: "It's amazing. I can't believe it. I was predicted all Bs, so to get an A*, it's just amazing." He is starting a geography course at Royal Holloway.

Jacob Simmons achieved A* grades in English literature and history and a B in mathematics. He said: "I'm feeling very pleased. A lot of hard work has paid off. It's nice that it's all wrapped up."

Principal Andy Prestoe said: "I am incredibly proud of our students. These results have not happened by chance; they have been grafted for and are the result of a combination of high aspirations, resilience and commitment."

"I am delighted for them, especially as they can now go on to study at university with confidence, including in the some of the most highly-rated institutions in the country."

"This is great news for them and their families, but will also act as inspiration for others in the Haverhill area. I would like to thank, on behalf of our students, anyone who has helped make this day possible, including their very supportive parents and incredibly dedicated teachers."

Parkinson's help at hand

If you or someone you know suffers from Parkinson's disease, please pass on this information. We are a new group who have come together to offer each other advice and support.

We also share our experiences of this progressive and life-consuming illness. Anyone who suffers from this or knows someone who does will be aware that till now there has been no group like this in Haverhill – you have to travel to Shelford or Sudbury or Bury St Edmunds, which is fine if you can get there.

So realising this was a facility Haverhill needs, we approached Parkinson's UK last year and they held a meeting last October. They were hoping to hold another in March of this year but due to restructuring it was not possible for them to do so – the only option was for us to do this ourselves.

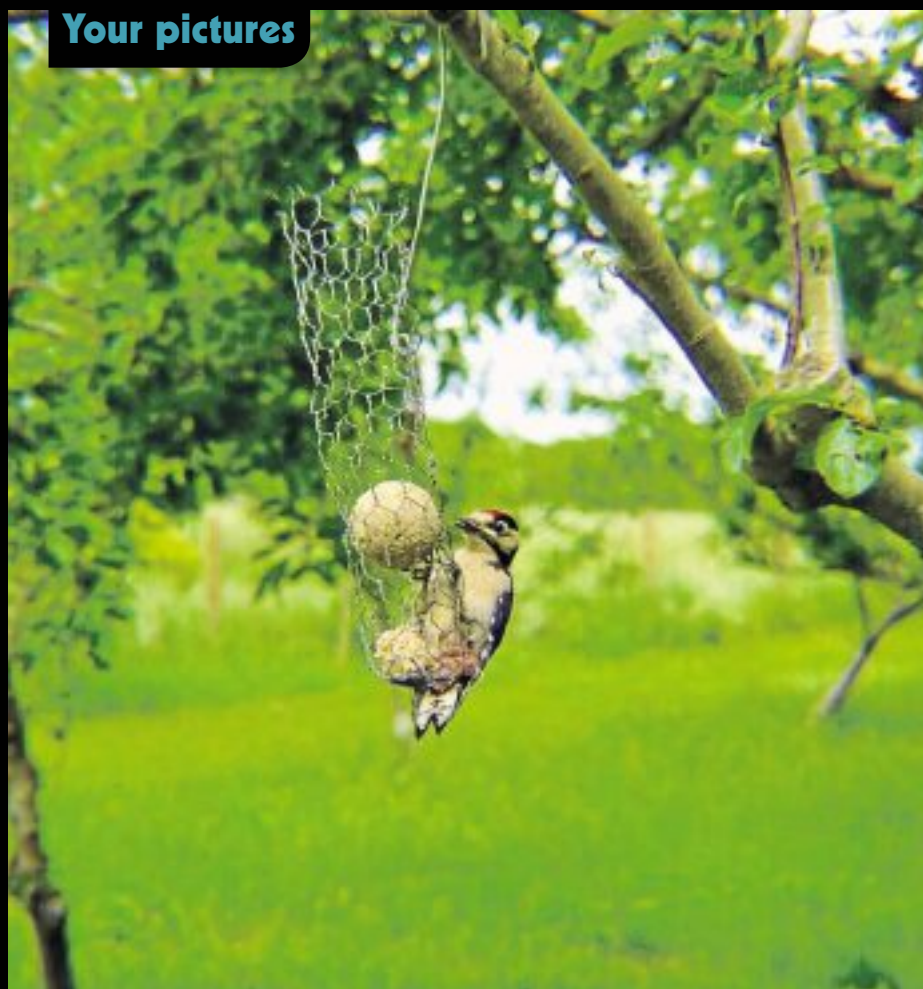

Our next meeting is October 7; please come along and join us. If you are a Parkinson's sufferer or just a friend or family member, or carer of someone who suffers. Come and join us to share your knowledge, your experiences, and your support with a group of very friendly people. All with one goal in mind: to help others, while helping themselves understand, deal with, cope with, and yes accept and live with this consuming illness and its many different phases, stages and the rate of progression, which as you may or may not know varies so much in each and every one of us.

We all have one thing in common and that is none of us are willing to sit back and give up. We are pulling together, laughing together, and crucial to coping we know now we are not on our own – there are others who understand.

Join us for a coffee and a friendly chat at Bevan House from 6.30pm until 8.30pm on October 7.

Haverhill & District Flower Club

OUR Annual Show Flower Show took place on Friday 14 and Saturday 15 August at Haverhill Arts Centre.

This was our 11th consecutive show, which is quite an achievement, which would not be possible without the financial support of Haverhill Town Council. The show was officially opened by the Mayor of Haverhill Cllr Betty McLatchy, accompanied by her husband.

We are very grateful to Mrs McLatchy for her donation of seven trophies to be handed to winners of each class, an excellent addition to the ones we already have. We also welcomed the president of the East of England Area of NAFAS (National Association of Flower

WELL DONE:
Award winners

Arrangement Societies) and on Saturday we had a visit from Mrs Valerie Best, a past NAFAS national chairman. We had a record number of visitors to the show this year and Saturday was extremely busy. Once again we had competitors from several corners of East Anglia, such as Ipswich, Great Baddow and Harleston, just to name a few.

The show had seven competitive classes, which included a craft class. So there was something for everybody to enjoy. For the first time we had an imposed class; in this particular class all materials are provided and all competitors must stage their exhibit within a specified time. Some of the titles were "A Stitch in Time", "We Go Mad at Times" and "Hot & Spicy".

The winners of the special awards were:

- Best in Show, Mrs Sharon Waters
- Runner up to Best of Show: Mrs Pat Hammond
- Best Intermediate Exhibit: Mrs Elva King
- Most Innovative Design: Mrs Pat Hammond
- Best Use of Colour: Mrs Susan Horne
- Best Use of Garden Plant Material: Irene Godsmark
- Most Points and People's Choice Award: Mrs Valerie Phillips.

'I'M SO LUCKY': Lauren Davies with baby Alfie Cakebread and her exam results
Picture: Keith Jones

Results .... and a baby!

MOST students have nerves as they prepare to take A-levels and BTECs – but Lauren Davies was “worried I was going to give birth in the exam hall”.

The 19-year-old Samuel Ward Academy student gave birth to her son Alfie Cakebread just three days after finishing work on her BTEC.

She achieved two distinctions in BTEC sport and merit in BTEC social care, and is now planning on taking a year out and applying to go to university next September.

Lauren, who lives in Kedington, said: “I kind of put off university when I found out I was pregnant, but because of the results I am definitely thinking of going.”

“I think needing to finish early and get everything done made me work a lot harder. That kind of forced me to work.”

She went on: “I didn't know I had done so well. I was expecting to pass.”

“I think my friends were quite surprised at how I managed to finish. I really thought I wasn't going to finish.”

Lauren's teachers gave her support when she had to miss school and accelerated her course so that she could complete her BTECs in April.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Alfie was born on Monday, April 27 – and Lauren finished school the Friday before.

She said: “I would definitely say the best thing about the year is having Alfie – and on top of that to get the results that I got!”

“I'm glad I am able to do the things I wanted to do, even with the struggles I've had.”

Lauren is planning to study either sport or nursing and midwifery – an option she has become more interested in since having a baby.

She said about the midwife who helped her give birth: “She was great – she was really good.”

But for now, Lauren has been enjoying the summer with her family and looking after baby Alfie.

She said: “He's so good. People keep telling me I'm so lucky. He sleeps right through the night.”

Paul takes the stage in USA

Don't miss
Business
in Tuesday's
CAMBRIDGE news

'THOUGHT LEADER': Paul Donno on stage at the conference

THE former US Secretary of State, a star of The Apprentice – and a Haverhill accountant.

This was the line-up of speakers at a conference in New Orleans at the end of July.

Haverhill's Paul Donno, who runs online accounting company laccounts and is chairman of the town's Chamber of Commerce, was speaking at the Sage Summit 2015.

The summit, run by business software provider Sage, aims to provide accountants and small business with networking opportunities.

Paul said: "There was a huge build-up to the Sage Summit. I was thrilled to be going over to New Orleans and that wasn't entirely down to being flown out there on Virgin Airways Business Class!"

"Just before I went on the stage I did feel slightly apprehensive but the main feeling was one of excitement. The theatre was very open and set up for the audience to interact with me."

Other names on the line-up at the three-day event included former US Secretary of State Colin Powell; former Deputy Governor of the Bank of England Paul Tucker; actress, writer and entrepreneur Jane Seymour and star of The Apprentice Baroness Karen Brady.

The summit, which ran from July 27 to 30, attracted more than 7,500 visitors.

Paul was specially invited to speak at the event by its organisers, and was classed as one of the conference's "Thought Leaders".

He gave two 45-minute presentations. The first focused on how and why he moved his business online, while the second was about the tools and software his firm now uses.

Paul said: "I have always been a gadget geek and have a passion for technology, especially if it can make my life easier."

"I have worked closely with Sage over the last few years, on Sage One, and have fully committed to the concept of cloud-based accounting within my accountancy practice. The vast majority of accountants simply don't understand the benefits online accounting offers to their clients."

Paul's company was an early adopter of Sage's online accounting software, going digital in 2011. Since then, Sage has awarded laccounts the title of "Online Provider of the Year".

HEALTH

Have your say on local services

RESIDENTS will get a chance to have their say on local healthcare services at a meeting next Thursday.

The NHS West Suffolk Clinical Commissioning Group is holding a meeting of its community engagement group.

The group plays an important role in influencing the decisions of the CCG, so the meeting is a chance for residents to have a meaningful input into healthcare.

The group will discuss set agenda items, including the Suffolk Better Care fund, which will see the pooling of some health and social care services.

Anne Nicholls, chairman of the community engagement group, said:

"The community engagement group both informs and influences the decision and planning process for health services in west Suffolk."

"It is important that people give their views so that the CCG can commission the right health services which meet the needs of local people. I would encourage people to attend as their opinions are vital to making healthcare services the best they can be."

Another discussion topic will be the new Connect Sudbury project.

The meeting will take place on Thursday, August 27 at Sudbury Town Hall, Gaol Lane, Sudbury CO10 1TL from 2pm to 4.30pm.

JUSTICE

Have your say on court closure

WHAT would happen to you if Bury St Edmunds magistrates' court shut down? The borough council wants to know.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council is collecting evidence of the damage that could be done to local justice in the court was closed.

The Ministry of Justice announced plans to shut the court in July. It was one of 91 "surplus" courts on a list of those facing closure.

The plans could see 57 magistrates' courts, 19 county courts, two crown courts, four tribunal hearing centres and nine combined courts shut down.

The MoJ is now running a consultation on the possible closures, which will end on October 8.

If the Bury St Edmunds court does close, Haverhill residents could face a 47-mile trip to Ipswich magistrates' court, or a 63-mile journey to Norwich.

The borough council is

HANNAH MIRSKY

planning on using local people's evidence to strengthen their own response to the government consultation.

Cllr John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said: "Personally I find it astonishing that the Ministry of Justice would even consider closing our court, especially in such a rural area."

"For many here in West Suffolk and particularly those who rely on public transport, for example, getting to Ipswich for 10am could be an incredibly difficult challenge, not to mention getting home afterwards."

"Access to local justice is hugely important and I am asking people to let us know how this proposal would affect them if they had to attend as a witness, defendant or as a legal representative."

"We will then use this evidence in our own response to the consultation, and to strengthen the offer we have already made to government that they could share buildings, facilities and technology with us elsewhere in the town if the current court building is no longer fit for purpose."

To share your views with the borough council, email by September 21 to court@westsuffolk.gov.uk. Alternatively, post your thoughts to Cllr John Griffiths, St Edmundsbury Borough Council, West Suffolk House, Bury St Edmunds, IP33 3YU.

NEWS IN BRIEF

GP surgeries correction

TWO GP practices merged in Haverhill in March this year to form Haverhill Family Practice.

These practices were Christmas Maltings Surgery (Dr Selby and Partners) and Stourview Medical Practice.

In the Haverhill News dated August 13, we incorrectly reported that the two practices which were merged were Christmas Maltings and Clements. This is not the case.

We apologise for the error.

Motocross star, Harvey, 9, is backed for big race

REVVED UP: 9-year-old Haverhill MX rider Harvey Gritton with representatives from Dellar Sports Coaching, who are sponsoring him in a race

IN less than a fortnight, Harvey Gritton will be donning a helmet and racing against 39 motocross riders from across the country – and he's only nine years old.

Harvey, who started racing aged just seven, will be competing at the MX Master Kids UK event at Motoland MX in Mildenhall from August 29 to August 31.

He is being sponsored for the race by Dellar Sports Coaching, who coach children at primary and secondary schools in Haverhill.

Harvey's dad Kevin, 47, said: "It is an expensive sport, and any help we can get from anyone we are very grateful for."

Kevin, who works in property maintenance, used to ride MX bikes himself, from his teenage years onwards, but he gave it up so that the family could afford Harvey's racing.

Harvey, who attends St Felix Roman Catholic Primary School, practises racing most weekends, and at the moment is working on moving from an automatic to a manual bike.

Kevin said: "It takes up a lot of time. Most weekends, if we are not racing, we're practising."

HANNAH MIRSKY

But he says Harvey is a "normal boy" who spends time on his Xbox for the rest of the week.

Adam Dellar of Dellar Sports Coaching said: "Harvey goes to a school we work a lot with, and Harvey and his sister Abbie have been coming to the work we do at St Felix amid other work."

"We thought it was really nice to give something back to them, and we recognise that he's obviously excelling in motocross."

Kevin said that he did not know how Harvey would place in the Mildenhall event, but hoped he would be in the top 10 of his group.

"If he got in the top 10, that would be brilliant," said Kevin. "There are people who get to practise every day, and Harvey only gets to practise on the weekend."

Anyone who would like to sponsor Harvey in the future can contact his parents Kevin and Nicola on 07429 166781.

New firm will help councils

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

TWO councils are setting up a commercial company to cope with government budget cuts.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council and Forest Heath District Council have teamed up with a local provider to create a "facilities management" business.

They estimate that the move will save them about £40,000 per year.

In the last two years, the councils have seen a 50 per cent cut to their Revenue Support Grant, which comes from central government.

They are aiming to avoid increasing council tax, and are instead hoping to make a profit from their business to cope with the cuts.

The company they are setting up, which will be called Verse, will provide catering, cleaning, courier services and security.

It will be a joint venture with publically-owned commercial company Eastern Facilities Management Solutions (EFMS).

The councils had previously been using several different methods of service provision, but decided that forming the company would allow them to improve the service, make the most savings and share the profit.

The new company would also provide the flexibility to add extra services at a later date.

In addition to the £40,000 saving, the councils will explore opportunities to provide more services and sell them to other organisations.

Cllr Peter Stevens, St Edmundsbury Borough Council's cabinet member for operations, said: "This makes sound financial sense and gives the council a greater stake in ensuring visitors, whether it is to our public buildings, cemeteries, parks, heritage sites or other facilities, have the best possible experience."

One of the reasons for creating Verse is that the councils' current facilities management contracts with external companies are coming to an end.

Ian Surtees, managing director of EFMS, said: "We feel strongly that the creation of Verse will provide great career opportunities for those living and working locally."

"Our joint venture opportunity will allow us to work even closer with both St Edmundsbury and Forest Heath through a partnership approach to further develop and improve the provision currently in place; thus allowing the councils to focus on protecting front-line services, something we all care very much about."

'Charlie's Angels' take on 11-mile walk for hospice

DETERMINED: Amanda Williams, Sophie Allen, Laura Allen and Sue Elliott will take part in Girls Night Out in aid of St Nicholas Hospice Care next month

A TEAM of 'Charlie's Angels' are preparing to take part in a fundraising challenge.

Haverhill's Amanda Williams, who has not raised money since she was in school, was inspired to take part in an 11.2-mile charity walk by her late grandad Charlie.

She will be talking part in the St Nicholas Hospice Care Girls Night Out in Bury St Edmunds on September 12 with three family members.

Amanda, her mum Sue Elliott and her cousins Sophie and Laura Allen each hope to raise £100 for the hospice, which cares for people with life-limiting illnesses.

Amanda said: "My mum is walking for our grandad. We are doing this walk in honour of him, so we became Charlie's Angels."

She went on: "I haven't done any fundraising since I was at school and wanted to give something back as an adult. We have been asking friends, family and neighbours to sponsor us and we've set up justgiving pages and are sharing these as much as we can on social media."

"My cousin works in a shop at

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

weekends and they have let us put a donations box in there a few times. She's used stickers and posters and put a photo of our grandad on the box to help get support."

The "angels" have been training since they signed up for the walk in May, and are determined to make it round the whole route. Amanda said: "I am not the fittest person in the world so couldn't have just waited until September then walked 11.2 miles, so we decided we had better do some training."

"So far we have built up to walking five miles every Wednesday evening and 7.5 miles on Saturdays, which we can do in two hours. We are feeling confident we can make the 11.2 miles before midnight."

There is still time to sign up to take part in the Girls Night Out. It costs £15 including a t-shirt and a pair of flashing bunny ears. Visit stnicholashospicecare.org.uk to register.

Dedicated to animal care

LOCATED in the village of Linton, Belgrave House Veterinary Surgery has been caring for animals in the local community since 1985.

Run by David and Val Urwin with veterinary assistants Nick Bane, Tom Berry and Dinah Skertchly the practice is also supported by qualified nurses Claire Beck, Selina Cole and Nicole Dobbs and receptionists/nurse assistants Louise Fuller, Wendy Becker and Gill Burt. ity in the treatment of all pets by our veterinary surgeons, two of whom now have more than 35 years' experience.

"If any case requires the expertise of veterinary specialists we can easily arrange referral to the most appropriate of the excellent referral facilities in the south east. In some cases the specialist will come and examine your pet at the practice."

Specialists who regularly visit the practice include cardiologist Paul Smith and ophthalmologist David Williams.

"We are blessed with wonderful clients and will always go the extra mile to ensure they and their pets get the best service possible," says David. "We are pleased to offer home visits for those occasions when it is not possible or desirable for our patients to visit us at the surgery". It is perhaps no surprise then that the majority of new clients registering with the practice come via recommendation from existing highly satisfied clients.

The veterinary surgery is open Monday to Friday from 8.30am to 7pm and Saturday from 8.30 am to 12noon. There is convenient parking on site and a 24-hour on-site emergency service run by the same experienced team. Belgrave House

Bill Bailey

THE gap between how we imagine our lives to be and how they really are is the subject of Bill Bailey's new show Limboland, coming to the Corn Exchange in Cambridge this autumn.

Featuring his trademark intelligence and sharp wit, there'll be tales of his countless global travels, including one disastrous family trip to Norway to see the Northern Lights, and much contemplating about the true nature of happiness.

And of course no Bill Bailey show would be complete without some tunes, so you can enjoy Bill's version of the protest song, a country and western ballad played on a Bible, and a fabulously downbeat version of Happy Birthday.

Our advice? Book now before he sells out.

CINEMA

MOVIE buffs are in for a treat next month, as the Cambridge Film Festival returns for its 35th edition.

Excited? You should be! The festival – the UK's third longest-running film festival – is running from September 3 to September 13, at the Arts Picturehouse, the Light Cinema and other venues across Cambridge, and promises to be bigger and better than ever.

Organised by the charitable Cambridge Film Trust and funded by BFI Film Forever, this year's programme has something for everyone; from hotly-anticipated UK and world premieres to special guests, workshops and artist installations.

1 Movies on the Meadows

Launching the festival is the ever-popular Movies on the Meadows, which gives audiences the opportunity to watch 10 brilliant films in the beautiful surroundings of Grantchester Meadows. pictured. Paddington, Back to the Future and The Theory of Everything are all on the bill, plus there's a special Riverside Romance event on Monday, August 31, where you can enjoy a punt-side screening of Jean Renoir's Partie de Campagne on the river itself, with hampers, blankets and brollys provided.

2 Opening Night Gala – Star*Men

Following four exceptional UK astronomers reunited for a road trip across the States, where they worked during the most exciting period in astronomy's history, Alison Rose's insightful film is a funny and humbling portrait of a lifetime's friendship.

3 Dr Brian May: 3D Evening

Although best known as the guitarist in Queen, Dr Brian May is also recognised for his interest in astronomy, and his keen passion for stereoscopic photography; both as one of the world's leading collectors and as a practitioner. He will be making an appearance at the festival to talk about this rather unusual interest with Dennis Pellerin, co-author of Diableries: Stereoscopic Adventures in Hell, and to present their stereoscopic short film One Night in Hell and a curated compilation of restored 3D rarities.

A feast of films

LYDIA FALLON looks at the highlights of Cambridge Film Festival, which the News is proud to support

4 BBC Arena at 40: Night and Day

2015 marks 40 years of the iconic, multi-award winning arts strand, BBC Arena, and the festival will be celebrating this milestone at a special closing night event. Night and Day is Arena's most ambitious project to date – a 24-hour film marking the passage of day to night to day, exactly in sync with British summer time on September 13 to 14, and made entirely from material from the Arena archive. Directed by series editor Anthony Wall and film editor Emma Matthews, it's a portrait of the whole planet and its history since the dawn of film.

5 The Cambridge Family Film Festival

Much-loved films, presented in a family-friendly environment, this year's jam-packed programme focuses on favourite book characters, including screenings of Mr Men, Esio Trot, Gruffalo, Paddington, Peppa Pig,

Charlie and Lola. There's also a Roald Dahl Day, and an appearance from festival favourite Neil Brand, who returns with Keaton for Kids, a special show celebrating the magic deadpan of comic genius Buster Keaton.

6 Lates@TheLight

This year, the festival is teaming up with the city's newest multiplex cinema, The Light to present Lates@TheLight, a programme of late-night thrills, which includes boundary-pushing cult classics and fresh horror talent. Titles on the bill include 54: The Directors Cut; Mark Christopher's cinematic monument to 70s hedonism, Tippi Hedren, and Melanie Griffiths' terrifying big cat home invasion movie, Roar.

7 Artist Cinema

Hugely-talented arty duo Davy and Kristen McGuire head up an award-winning creative studio which designs unique visual experiences through art installations and theatrical projects. Winners of The Oxford Samuel Beckett Theatre Trust Award 2013, they use intricate animated paper sculptures to convey narrative drama in miniature. Their festival installation, Homage to Hitchcock, recreates scenes from The Birds, Rear Window and Psycho, and will move from site to site during the festival.

8 Film premieres

There's a whole host of world (seven) and UK (55) premieres to look forward to this year, including Robert Redford's The Company You Keep, a tense and intelligent political thriller about an anti-Vietnam War militant attempting to escape his radical past; the world premiere of Dance Iranian Style, which blends documentary and fiction to tell the story of a young Iranian girl denied refuge by Dutch immigration; and Infinitely Polar Bear, the semi-autobiographical directorial debut by screenwriter Maya Forbes, about a man with bipolar disorder.

9 Short Fusion

Bringing together the best short films – selected from over 600 submissions – from the UK, Ireland, Canada, Belgium, Denmark, South Korea, Japan, Israel and the US, thematically linked by Secrets, Space & Oddity, Childhood, Love & Death and Motion.

10 Cambridge Film Festival Closing Night Gala

The UK premiere of Palio, Cosima Spender's documentary capturing the intensity of world's oldest horse race, closes this year's festival. Described by the New York Times as "Rocky on Horseback", this film should not be missed.

● Circo Ridicoloso brings a re-imagining of the classic tale THE THREE LITTLE PIGS to Haverhill tomorrow (Friday) at 2pm. Danny has ordered a Story Telling Kit which has arrived in a crate. The crate contains all the props Danny will need to tell the story – or does it? Danny tells the curly tale with lots of huff and puff that will blow you away – Oink! Suitable for ages 3-plus; please be aware the show has loud balloon pops!

● Don't miss a live broadcast by The Royal Shakespeare Company of OTHELLO on Wednesday 26 August at 7pm. Othello is the greatest general of his age, a fearsome warrior, loving husband and revered defender of Venice against its enemies. After more than a decade working in film and television projects from Star Wars to Holby City, Hugh Quarshie returns to the RSC to play Shakespeare's Othello opposite Lucian Msamati as Iago.

● On the cinema front, JURASSIC WORLD 2D (12A) is showing today at 2.30pm – when a giant genetically-created dinosaur escapes and wreaks havoc, the park's lead behavioural scientist must try to save the terrified tourists. Ian McKellen stars in MR HOLMES (PG) on Tuesday 25 August at 7.30pm. It's 1947 and Sherlock is retired. His gradually ailing mind rallies to piece together a fiendish 30-year-old mystery. Let's hope he's given up his old opium habit or solving the mystery could prove impossible! If you can't make the 25th, we have an afternoon screening on Tuesday 8 September at 1.30pm. SLOW WEST (15) is on Monday 24 August at 7.30pm. At the end of the 19th century, 16-year-old Jay Cavendish journeys across the American frontier in search of the woman he loves. He is joined by Silas, a mysterious traveller, and hotly pursued by an outlaw along the way. Starring Michael Fassbender, this film is not necessarily as slow as its title suggests...

● Events to look out for include our free 80s Season films including Dirty Dancing (12A), Ghostbusters (PG), The Breakfast Club (15), Raiders of the Lost Ark (PG) and Top Gun (12A) from Friday 28 to Sunday 30 August, a NT Live live broadcast of The Beaux' Stratagem on Thursday 3 September at 7pm, and the ever popular 'Froggie' Raymond Froggatt on Saturday 5 September at 7.30pm.

Volvo tops JD Power poll

VOLVO ranks highest among premium brands and Honda ranks highest among volume brands in UK customer satisfaction with vehicle service, according to the JD Power 2015 UK Customer Service Index (CSI) StudySM released this week.

The inaugural study measures UK customer satisfaction with their service experience at a franchised dealer facility for maintenance and repair work. The study explores customer satisfaction with their service dealer by examining five measures (listed in order of importance): service quality (26 per cent); service initiation (23 per cent); service advisor (19 per cent); vehicle pick-up (17 per cent); and service facility (16 per cent). Satisfaction is calculated on a 1,000-point scale.

The CSI Study is a comprehensive analysis of the vehicle service experience and is conducted by JD Power in 16 countries worldwide, providing detailed after-sales solutions for automakers and dealerships.

THE ALL-NEW VOLVO XC90 T8: Sure to keep the punters even happier

Volvo ranks highest among premium brands in satisfaction with a score of 779. Volvo is followed by Land Rover (767) and Audi (762). Honda ranks highest among volume brands in satisfaction with a score of 768. Suzuki and Toyota rank second in a tie (759 each), and Kia and Skoda rank fourth in a tie (758 each).

"The common perception is that the luxury brands are able to deliver a more satisfying customers experience, but the study shows this is not the case," said Dr Axel Sprenger, senior director of European automotive operations at JD Power. "Any brand and any dealership can provide a consistently positive customer experience if they make it a priority and have the people and processes in place. When they do, they likely will see an increase in revenue and will be able to build customer loyalty."

The 2015 UK CSI study finds that satisfaction with dealer service leads to customer loyalty and advocacy. Among the 20 per cent of customers who are highly satisfied with their dealer service (overall satisfaction scores of 900 and above), 78 per cent say they "definitely will" purchase their next vehicle from that dealer and 85 per cent "definitely will" recommend the dealer to friends and family.

Subaru Levorg is ready to go on sale next month

THE all-new Subaru Levorg will go on sale in the UK at the end of next month priced at £27,495, Subaru announced this week.

A spiritual successor to the much loved fourth-generation Subaru Legacy Tourer (2003-2008), the Levorg will be available with one engine: a newly-developed 1.6-litre DIT (Direct Injection Turbo) Boxer petrol engine.

The new 1.6-litre DIT unit offers the same performance as Subaru's existing 2.5-litre naturally-aspirated Boxer engine, despite being 36 per cent smaller. Engineered specifically for the Levorg, the all-new four-cylinder engine produces 170PS and 250 Nm torque.

Corvette cyber-jacking is a new car-hack first

THE security of cars has come under scrutiny for the second time this summer with the posting on YouTube of a video – search “Fast and Vulnerable” – showing hackers demonstrating that a device used to track your driving habits can also be used to remotely take over your car... via text message.

In the video, the hackers show how they are able to turn on the windscreen wipers and apply the brakes on a Corvette, using only a mobile phone. The perpetrators were Ian Foster and Andrew Prudhomme, from the University of California, San Diego. The duo demonstrated how they were able to “exploit a device used to track driving data to digitally break into a Corvette, turning on its windshield wipers and putting on as well as disabling the brakes”, according to CBS News. The findings were presented at a security conference in Washington DC.

The hack was accomplished using an aftermarket telematics control unit, similar to the ones used by major insurers to help customers save on premiums. “The palm-sized dongles plug into a car’s standard onboard diagnostic (OBD-II) port to monitor speed, distance and braking,” says CBS. “That data, used to determine how safe a driver you are, is sent wirelessly to the companies’ servers.”

A Corvette using a simple tracking device as favoured by insurers has been hacked and controlled – by text message. MIKE SCIALOM reports

CORVETTE: Research suggests aftermarket cyber-security vulnerability

The UCSD hack shows how these added third-party devices only increase the already significant security risks of connected cars.

“We show that these devices can be discovered, targeted, and compromised by a remote attacker and we demonstrate that such a compromise allows arbitrary remote control of the vehicle,” the researchers wrote in the abstract to their paper. “This problem is particularly challenging because, since this is aftermarket equipment, it cannot be well addressed by automobile manufacturers themselves.”

Ken Westin, senior security analyst at Tripwire explains how and why this is possible: “One of the trends I am seeing in automotive system vulnerabilities is that many of these systems are using networks and protocols designed for cellular and IP networks; these tools were designed to facilitate human to human interaction. When these networks and protocols are repurposed for machine to machine communication, they become vulnerable to a variety of different threat models.

“When a cell phone is compromised there is a potential for data to be compromised, which is an inconvenience. However, when machine to machine communications over cellular or IP networks are compromised it leads to a kinetic attack that could result in serious injury or even loss of life.”

This latest cyber-breach comes after a recent hack of a Jeep Cherokee in the US which resulted in the recall of 1.4 million Fiat Chrysler vehicles for emergency software updates. ■ Sign Language comment: At cambridge-news.co.uk/sign-language-for-cyclists.

Smith sees red as Borough go out of FA Cup

Football: FA Cup

A CONTROVERSIAL red card for Haverhill Borough goalkeeper Graham Smith proved the talking point as they bowed out of the FA Cup with a 3-1 loss at Welwyn Garden City.

Smith was dismissed on 68 minutes with the score still 1-1 after colliding with Welwyn striker Ash Kersey after coming out of the area.

The collision felled both players, but the referee deemed Smith's actions to be denying a clear goal-scoring opportunity and sent him off.

Welwyn had taken the lead after 22 minutes in the extra-preliminary round tie, but Borough got back on level terms in the 54th minute when Harry Halls finished from Matt Staines' cross.

But Smith's dismissal followed soon after and Welwyn made the most of their man advantage, scoring twice in the final 15 minutes to seal the win.

Haverhill Rovers exited the FA Cup as well, losing 1-0 at home to a Mildenhall managed by former Rovers boss Dean Greygoose.

Meanwhile, Rovers' under-18s kicked off the new Thurlow Nunn

Youth League season with a 3-1 victory away to FC Clacton.

The side included three 15-year-olds and one of those, Brandon McKay, opened the scoring for Rovers on his debut.

Lawrence Healey added their other two goals either side of half time, with Clacton pulling one back two minutes from time.

Poor batting costs Haverhill dear against leaders

HAVERHILL underperformed as they lost to Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship, Division Two leaders Braintree by 40 runs.

Hosts Haverhill performed well with the ball and in the field, with Callum Brunning in particularly good form.

He claimed 4 for 7 as Braintree were all out for 107, but Haverhill never got going with the bat.

Cricket

They were dismissed for 67 runs.

Skipper Joe Woodley was disappointed with the way his team performed, especially the top order batsmen.

"It was a disappointing result," he admitted.

"Once again, we bowled and fielded excellently but our batting fell short.

"This was in part due to some good bowling, but our game management was poor as we were seven down in 14 overs."

Iron keeps a hold on ladies' championship

Golf

ALICE Iron mounted a successful defence of her crown to again secure Haverhill's Ladies' Club Championship.

Rounds of 83 and 79 saw junior member Iron take victory with a total of 162 to finish 17 shots clear of her nearest rival in the 36-hole competition.

It was Iron and fellow Haverhill junior Fiona Stokes who set the pace after the first round, with the former leading by four shots.

She secured victory in convincing style, with Linda Alexander (90, 89) taking second from Stokes (87, 92) on countback after both scored 179.

The handicap competition was won by Alexander with her total of 139 after rounds of nett 70 and 69.

Iron had actually finished with the lowest nett total of 138, but the tournament rules prevented her from winning both prizes.

Gerry Wheatley (75, 74) was second with a total of 149 and Mary Sail was one further back in third.

Anne Reed won the 18-hole Pam Ratford Trophy with a round of nett 68.

Elaine Ward was four shots back in second and Pat Kennedy took third on countback with 79.

Iron added her club title to victory in the medal competition of Haverhill juniors' Peter Bowers Trophy.

Receiving two courtesy shots, Iron scored nett 69 to take victory, edging out brother James Iron by one shot.

Josh Hulyer was third on 70, while Harry Proctor won the stableford competition with 36 points and Ewan Groves finished second on 33.

Haverhill's Hambro Cup team are through to the final after coming back from two holes down in the morning to beat Gorleston in the semi-finals at Ufford Park.

The day's first matches saw Gerry Scott and Dave Perrett halve with James Chadd and Danny Perring; Dave Spittle and Jack Bligh lose to Chris Duffy and Tommy Hunt two down; Chris Vince and Jack Warwick beat Josh Manser and Stuart Mortimer two up; and Andy Fish and Paul Bartlett lose to Danny Western and Jamie Bool two down.

But Haverhill ended up triumphing by two shots thanks to afternoon wins for Bligh and Spittle, Scott and Perrett, and Fish and Bartlett.

CHAMPION AGAIN: Alice Iron successfully defended her title

Haverhill face Newton Green in the final on Sunday, August 30 at a venue to be confirmed.

Lynda and David Minton made their trip from Saffron Walden worthwhile as they won Haverhill's Mixed Open with 44 points.

Alison and Dick Taylor, from Stowmarket, were second on 43 and another Saffron Walden pair, Corinne and Dominic Parmentier, were third on 42.

Brampton's May Burn won the ladies' nearest the pin on the eighth hole and David Minton won the men's nearest the pin on the 16th.

Burn and John Topping had the best front nine score with 24, while Susan and Jonathan Soar, of Costessey Park, recorded the best back nine score of 22.
